- (E) If any change is approved by a majority of the valid votes cast, the committee shall submit them to the American Rabbit Breeders Association Inc. standard committee with recommendations for adoption.

Section 4 Constitution Committee: A constitution committee consisting of a chairperson and 3 members shall be appointed by the President.

- (A) The committee shall complete a timely review of the Constitution and By-laws of this Association. They should respond to all issues raised by the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc., the Executive Board of this Association and the Association members.
- (B) The chairperson of this committee shall be responsible for preparing and submitting any proposed changes to the Executive Board prior to publication for the general membership to consider.
- (C) All changes to the Constitution and By-laws must be done as described in the articles of amendments with the exception that any proposed resolutions coming out of this committee need not meet the requirements for membership signatures. They must only be signed off on by the entire Constitution & By Laws committee.

Section 5 Publicity Committee: A publicity committee consisting of a chairperson and 2 members shall be appointed by the President.

- (A) The committee shall maintain and update all promotional material for this Association.
- (B) The chairperson of this committee shall be responsible for preparing and submitting Association news to the editor of the Domestic Rabbits magazine for inclusion in each issue.
- (C) This committee shall be responsible for submitting all desired advertising for inclusion in all of the pertinent American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc. publications.
- (D) The committee shall be responsible for preparing a new guide book every five years, if requested by the Executive Board, with the release to coincide with the release of the new American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc. Standard of Perfection.

Article 4 – Alterations and Amendments

Section 1 Any alteration of, or amendment to the By-laws shall be made by a resolution, in writing and signed by fifteen (15) or more members in good standing of this Association and forwarded to the Secretary.

- (A) All resolutions are to be confined to one subject.
- (B) All submitted resolutions shall be printed in the Association newsletter at least one issue prior to being voted upon.

- (C) Ballots will then be mailed according to the voting procedures. The By-laws will be amended by an affirmative majority vote of all members casting valid ballots.
- (D) Any member, in good standing of this Association, may request a recount of the ballots by making such demand as described in the voting procedure.

Article 5 – Rules and Regulations

Section 1 All rules and regulations governing the Florida White Newsletter, Auction, Sweepstakes, National show and Person of the Year shall be under the direct supervision of the Executive Board and are not subject to resolutions. Membership views and suggestions shall receive top priority in all reviews of these rules and regulations.

Newsletter Editor:

- (A) The editor shall be responsible for preparing and publishing this Association’s newsletter on a quarterly bases.
- (B) The editor shall be responsible for establishing a fee schedule for all advertising with Executive Board approval.
- (C) The editor shall request a decision by the Executive Board prior to publishing any material or articles considered to be controversial in nature. If the Executive Board decides the material or article is unfit for publication same shall be returned to the submitter.
- (D) The name of a person submitting material or articles for publication in the newsletter shall accompany the material or article. No unsigned material or articles may be printed in the newsletter.
- (E) The names of all committee members shall be printed every issue of the newsletter.
- (F) The editor shall assist in the mailing of all ballots and return envelopes which are to be included in the newsletter when possible.
- (G) The secretary shall furnish the news Editor a complete membership mailing list. It shall be updated each Jan 1st, April 1st, July 1st and October 1st showing all deletions and additions thus keeping the mailing list current for the Editor.

ARBA Convention Guidelines

- (1) The FWRBA Executive Board will review these guidelines each year at the annual Executive Board Meeting.
- (2) A booth will be secured for each ARBA Convention.
- (3) The Booth Chair and/or Secretary will have a budget of $200 for expenses for the Booth.
- (4) A judges list for ARBA Conventions will be produced by the Judges Selection Committee. Additions to the list will be presented to the Executive Board for approval.
- (5) Depending on the location of the convention, one or two open judges and one youth judge will be contacted by the committee to judge.
- (6) If there are two (2) open judges, it may be necessary for a tie breaker should the two judges be unable to agree on the specials at the end of judging. The tie breaker will be determined at the Executive Board meeting by drawing one judge’s name out of a hat and this will be the “tie breaking” judge. This judge will only be revealed if the two judges cannot come to a consensus when picking specials, i.e. BOB, BOS, etc.
