

Florida White Rabbit Breeders Association Constitution Revised 2022

Florida White Rabbit Breeders Association Constitution

Article I – Name

Section 1 This organization shall be known as the Florida White Rabbit Breeders Association. Hereafter, in this document, it may be referred to as F.W.R.B.A.

Article 2 – Objectives

Section 1 The object of this Association shall be to encourage and improve the breeding and exhibition of Florida White rabbits and to offer services to its members.

Article 3 – Affiliation

Section 1 This Association shall be affiliated with the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc.

Section 2 A local, state, or district Florida White Association, whose object is in agreement with that of this Association, may become affiliated with this Association.

Article 4 – Membership

Section 1 Any person may become a member of the Florida White Rabbit Breeders Association by making application, in writing, and forwarding a minimum of one year's dues to the Association secretary.

Section 2 The Executive Board reserves the right to accept or reject, for just cause, any application for membership.

Section 3 The membership dues shall be as stated in the by-laws of the Association.

Section 4 Membership in the Association shall be acknowledged by a membership card issued by the secretary and dated from date of application and payment of at least one year's dues. All members shall be notified of their expiration date at least 30 days prior to that date via US Mail and/or email to the member. Dues must be received by the Secretary not later than 30 days following expiration date. If not received at the end of 45 days all sweepstakes points will be forfeited for that Sweepstakes Year. If an Election year, no ballots will be mailed to that Member.

- Section 5 All adult members shall have the right to vote in person at regular or called membership meetings of the Association, provided that membership dues are current.
- Section 6 All adult members shall also have the right to vote by mail in elections or upon any other matters submitted to the membership at the direction of the Executive Board, provided that membership dues are current.
- Section 7 No Proxy voting is allowed.

Article 5 – Discipline

- Section 1 The Executive Board by a majority vote, with due cause, may expel any member or reject any application for membership. Actions detrimental to the objectives of this Association may be grounds for expulsion. If a member is disciplined by the ARBA, the FWRBA may also follow the same type of disciplinary action.
- Section 2 Charges of misconduct may be filed by any member against any other member. The charges must be in writing and filed along with a $50.00 non-refundable fee within three months of discovery of the incident to the secretary of the Association.
- Section 3 Any member against whom charges have been filed shall be notified by certified mail by the secretary and given thirty days to reply before action is taken by the Executive Board.
- Section 4 Any person expelled or rejected for membership may be eligible to reapply after a period of one year. This application must be accompanied by signatures of 10 current members of FWRBA. The Executive Board will then act on this application, either at the next scheduled Executive Board meeting, or via email poll of the Executive Board.
- Section 5 If an Officer or Director becomes delinquent in their dues to this Association or to the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc., they shall be notified by certified mail by the secretary, and if their membership is not renewed within 30 days, the office shall be declared vacant.
- Section 6 If an Officer or Director does not fulfill their duties or shows a lack of interest in Association matters, they may be asked to resign by a two thirds majority of the other members of the Executive Board thus declaring the office vacant.
- Section 7 If an Officer or Director voluntarily discontinues the breeding of Florida White rabbits during their term, they shall resign the office they hold.
- Section 8 Mandatory Arbitration: Except as otherwise specified, all actions, disputes, claims and controversies under common law, statutory law or in equity of any type or nature whatsoever, and whether directly or indirectly relating to transaction or dealing between the parties (collectively the “Disputes”), will be subject to and resolved by binding arbitration pursuant to the Arbitration Rules of U.S. Arbitration & Mediation, (www.usam.com). Any award or order rendered by the arbitrator may be confirmed as a judgment or order in any state or federal court of competent jurisdiction, which includes within the federal judicial district of the residence of the party against whom such award or order was entered.

Article 6 – Authority

- Section 1 This Association shall have the authority to make such laws, establish rules and adopt such regulations as may be necessary for governing its members provided that its members are not required to commit any act which would make them amenable to the laws of the United States.

Section 2 Robert's Rules of Order shall be the final authority for this Association in all matters not specifically covered by the Constitution and By-laws.

Article 7 – Meetings

Section 1 There shall be two membership meetings of the Association each year when applicable. One at the American Rabbit Breeders Association National Convention and one at the National Florida White Show.

Section 2 Notice of time and place of meetings to be published at least 30 days prior to the date of the meetings in the newsletter.

Section 3 To conduct club business at a board meeting, a quorum is defined as seven (7) Officers or Directors of the club present at meeting.

Article 8 – Officers

Section 1 The Officers of this Association shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer and six (6) Directors.

Section 2 Officers shall be elected annually, from and by the membership, by mail ballot. Vacancies in an office shall be filled by appointment of the president, with the approval of the majority of the executive board.

Section 3 The president and vice president shall be elected annually on numerically odd years for a term of two years. The Secretary/Treasurer shall be elected bi-annually on numerically even years. Two Directors shall be elected annually for a term of three years. These officers constitute the Executive Board of the FWRBA.

Section 4 No more than two members of the Executive Board shall be from the same state.

Section 5 No individual may hold more than one position on the Executive Board.

Article 9 – Officers Duties

Section 1 President: The president shall preside at all meetings of the Association, act as chairperson of the Executive Board, appoint all committees, fill all vacancies in office within 60 days, subject to Board approval, call special meetings of the Executive Board or the Association. Special Meetings of the Executive Board may be in person or via electronic mailing, conference phone call or any type of virtual meeting.

Section 2 Vice President: The vice president shall perform the duties of the president in his/her absence.

Section 3 Secretary/Treasurer: The secretary/treasurer shall conduct the general correspondence of the Association, send out all required notices, keep a file of all letters received along with a copy of all letters sent out and keep the minutes of all meetings of the Association. The secretary/treasurer shall collect all monies due the Association, pay all claims that are authorized and approved by the Board of Directors. The Secretary/Treasurer shall furnish a bond in the amount necessary to cover the assets of the Association. Such bond to be paid for by the Association. Article 10 – Elections

- Section 1 The secretary shall issue a request, through the Spring newsletter, for intent to run petitions, stating the offices up for election.
- Section 2 Any adult member, in good standing for at least one year, may submit a petition for the office they wish to occupy. This should be accompanied by a resume of their qualification and received no later than May 1st by the secretary.
- Section 3 The secretary shall publish the official ballot containing the names of the candidates for the various offices through the appropriate newsletter.
- Section 4 The candidate receiving the most votes for the petitioned office will be declared elected to office and shall assume the responsibilities of that office upon the opening of the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc. National Convention.
- Section 5 In the absence of an adequate number of petitions to fill the vacancies, the president shall appoint a qualified member to fill the vacant office.

Article 11 – Voting Procedures

- Section 1 All ballots shall be marked so that they are not able to be reproduced.
- Section 2 Ballots shall be mailed via the newsletter or by themselves as conditions may dictate. However, if they are mailed via the newsletter they must be inserted just inside the front cover.
- Section 3 All ballots shall be accompanied by a pre-addressed return envelope. The envelope will be addressed to the election committee chairperson.
- Section 4 The ballots shall be opened and counted only in the presence of the entire election committee.
- Section 5 All ballots must be postmarked by the date which will be printed on the ballot. This date is to be approximately 20 days from the date that the newsletter containing the ballots will be delivered to the post office.
- Section 6 After 20 days, but before 60 days from the date printed on the ballot, the appointed election committee shall open the valid ballots and tabulate the votes.
- Section 7 The election chairperson shall notify the president and secretary immediately with the results. The secretary shall then notify all candidates of the election results by mail/email. The election committee shall seal all ballots in an envelope and mail them to the secretary to be held for one year.
- Section 8 Any member of this Association, in good standing, may request a recount of the ballots by making a request for the recount to the secretary of the Association within 45 days of the publication of the results.
- Section 9 For a recount of the ballots, the secretary shall require a deposit of $50.00 to defray the cost of the recount. A recount shall then be made by a committee of three. The contester shall select one member, the Executive Board shall select one member and the third member shall be chosen by the other two members. All three chosen shall be members in good standing of the Association.
- Section 10 The recount committee shall meet and count all valid ballots and report the results of the recount to the Executive Board by mail and this decision shall be final.
- Section 11 In the event of a tie, the Executive Board shall vote and the individual receiving the majority vote declared elected.
- Section 12 In the event that the contester is declared correct by the committee their deposit shall be returned.
- Section 13 The Executive Board shall carry out the instructions of the Association, shall give authorization for implementing, and handle any other matters for the Association between regular meetings.

Section 14 Newly elected officers will take office immediately following old business at the annual Board meeting.

Article 12 – Florida White News
